

Homework Grid - Year 2 Term 6

I enjoy reading, writing and speaking 	I enjoy maths 	I enjoy arts, music and being creative 	I enjoy being active and making things. 	I enjoy learning about Science and the world around me.
Write a seaside poem. What different types of poems could you explore? Have a look at rhyming poems and acrostic poems!	Make a shape wanted poster. What's the name of the shape? What properties could you describe? EG. Terry the triangle! On the loose for being too noisy!!	Create a piece of artwork with materials you find along the beach. This could be sand, shells, driftwood etc.	Visit the beach to see if you can find any interesting looks shells.	What materials can you find along the beach? Can you sort them into categories depending on their properties?
Create your own news report about something exciting that has happened along the coastline (be as imaginative as you like!). Could	Can you learn your 3 times tables? Be prepared to explain to your class how you learnt them!	Write a song about the beach. Bring in your lyrics and perform your piece to the class!	Design your own ice cream. What's different about it than the traditional ice creams you may find on the	Compare Hastings beach now and 100 years ago. What things are similar and what things are different?

you read yours to your class?			seafront?
----------------------------------	--	--	-----------	--

Homework expectations:

Children should be reading every day at home. Reading every day will really impact on your child's progress. In addition to this, children are expected to regularly complete Mathematics tasks set by the teacher. Each term, each child should complete the writing challenge and at least two other activities. The homework should be named and returned at any point before the end of term.